

Service-Learning Semester Abroad

Phnom Penh, CAMBODIA

The Role of Civil Society and Buddhism in Post-Conflict Cambodia

16 Week Spring Semester: January – April

16 Week Fall Semester: September – December

For students interested in international development, SE Asia Studies, Buddhism, public health, & cultural renewal

- 15 transferable credits through SUNY-Albany
- 2 week course focused on Cambodian social & community development + 1 week capstone
- 12 week internship with an NGO involved in development work in Cambodia
- Buddhist Immersion experience at a Khmer monastery
- Accommodations in central Phnom Penh location with a weekend trip to Siem Reap
- English, no language requirement with opportunity to learn basic Khmer
- Estimated program fee: $12,000

Co-sponsored by:

For More Information: globalservicecorps.org

Year-round Service-Learning Volunteer and Student Internship Opportunities Cambodia