

Service-Learning Summer Abroad

Phnom Penh, CAMBODIA

Conversational English Teaching, Global Public Health Education, Buddhist Immersion, Child & Orphanage Care, and Community Development & Youth Leadership Training
9-week Summer Programs from June – August

- Register for one of the programs listed above
- Receive nine academic credits transferable from the University at Albany
- Programs includes cultural orientation in Phnom Penh followed by eight weeks of service-learning projects
- Accommodations in and around Phnom Penh
- Includes a weekend excursion to Siem Reap and Angkor Wat
- No language requirement, with an opportunity to learn basic Khmer
- $7,000 estimated program fee

*For students interested in international development, SE Asia studies, Buddhism, and community renewal.
16 week Fall & Spring semester programs, short-term summer, and independent study programs are also available.*

Co-sponsored by:

For More Information: www.globalservicecorps.org

Year-round Service-Learning Volunteer and Student Internship Opportunities in Cambodia