Thank You!

As 2017 is coming to an end, the whole GSC Team wants to take this time to thank all of our service-learning program participants and subscribers for the continued support of the work that we do in Cambodia. 2018 is shaping up to be an exciting year for GSC.

New Website

We have launched our new website! The layout has been completely re-designed and new features have been added in order to ensure that visitors to our site can easily find the information they want to learn more about GSC. Read our blog post for a more detailed description about the new website.

Website Sneak Peak:

Cambodia Program Developments

Besides the new website, there are a lot of opportunities on the horizon for GSC and our service-learning volunteers in 2018. We are forming several exciting new partnerships with Cambodian community organizations, NGOs and other groups to expand our program opportunities for volunteers. GSC remains committed to serving the people of Cambodia throughout 2018 and beyond. Click here to read more about why GSC chose to develop programs in Cambodia and why it's a worthwhile commitment to volunteer on a GSC Cambodia service-learning program. Alternatively, if you are unable to join one of our volunteer programs you can still support GSC by donating. Follow this link to learn how your donation can help support GSC and the disadvantaged communities we serve in Cambodia.

We are also continuing to further develop and expand our programs in Cambodia, with a focus on our Global Public Health Program. GSC is preparing for a big program development trip in January with GSC's Directors, two master's degree students, a public health professor, a senior public health professional advisor, a gap year and semester student, and other service-learning volunteers. There will be more updates in January about their work so stay tuned! Keep in touch with the January group by following our blog.

Keep an eye out for major developments to GSC and our service-learning programs in Cambodia in 2018 and don't forget to check out our new website in the meantime.

Thank you again and Happy Holidays from Global Service Corps!
